The company's future owner can sign a 5-year lease for 500 euros/month.

The establishment operates with good profitability, which can be improved by extending the hours and the offer.

Other shops have been operating in the building for decades, in an atmosphere of traditional commerce.

The bar has a loyal clientele of residents in the area, functioning as a meeting point to have a drink and exchange a few conversations. The area is quiet and typical of the village of Cascais.
